

Clovis Freire

Clovis Freire is an Economist and Computer Engineer with 20 years of work experience at the UN in economic research focusing on economic development, structural transformation, and economic diversification. For the past five years, he led the preparation of UNCTAD's Technology and Innovation Report. He now leads the Commodity Research and Analysis Section of UNCTAD, responsible for UNCTAD's Commodity and Development Report. Before joining UNCTAD, He worked at DESA from 2015 to 2018 in the team responsible for the Global Sustainable Development Report.